

BROWN BAG WORKSHOP

Presented by Asian Pacific State Employees Association (APSEA) & Association of California State Employees with Disabilities (ACSED)

Leadership lessons from the Heart

APSEA and ACSED invite you for our monthly workshops open to anyone interested in learning about career development and upward mobility.

Thursday
September 20, 2018
12:00-1:00 p.m.
Department of Rehabilitation
721 Capitol Mall,
Training Room 242
Sacramento, CA 95814

Session overview

What does being authentic look like? What does it mean to lead from the heart? Can you be authentic, passionate and be a leader? Come hear from Director Joe Xavier as he kicks off the fall brown bag career development series. You will have a great time and learn quite a bit about leadership from this inspirational leader.

Keynote Speaker

Joe Xavier, Director Department of Rehabilitation, has over 34 years of experience in business and public administration, as well as many years participating in advocacy and community organizations. As an immigrant, a blind consumer, a beneficiary of the DOR's services, Joe has the experience and understands the challenges and opportunities available to individuals with disabilities, and the services required to maximize an individual's full potential. Joe: believes in the talent and potential of individuals with disabilities; in investing in the future through creativity, ingenuity and innovation; ensuring decisions and actions are informed by interested individuals and groups; in pursuing excellence through continuous improvement; and preserving the public's trust through compassionate and responsible provision of services.
